REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION

Applicants must meet the experience/education requirements by the cut-off date. Your signature on your application indicates that you have read and understood and do possess the qualifications required. Qualifying experience may be combined on a proportionate basis if the requirements stated below include more than one pattern and are distinguished as "Either I", or "Or II", etc. For example, candidates who possess qualifying experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern I, and additional experience amounting to 50% of the required time of Pattern II, may be admitted to an examination as meeting 100% of the overall experience requirement.

Applicants must provide a copy of their degree at the time of filing. If this information is not included (unless education is not needed), the application will be declined and a notice will be mailed to the applicant asking for this information by a determined deadline date.

Acceptable course work and degrees must be completed at a regionally accredited institution. Course work completed in other states is acceptable as long as the institution holds regional accreditation through an accrediting body. Course work and degrees completed outside of the United States must be evaluated by an approved foreign transcript evaluation agency before they may be used for credentialing purposes

GENERAL INFORMATION

For an examination with a written feature, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact CalSTRS four weeks after the date the application was submitted if he/she has not received a progress notice.

For an examination without a written feature, it is the candidate's responsibility to contact CalSTRS three weeks after the final filing date if he/she has not received his/her notice.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview or performance test fails to reach him/her 3 days prior to their scheduled appointment due to a verified postal error, he/she will be rescheduled upon written request.

Examination Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. However, locations of interviews or performance evaluations may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Examination Applications are available at www.jobs.ca.gov, CalHR State Jobs Center, State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the testing department on this job bulletin.

If you meet the requirements stated on this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

Candidates needing special testing arrangements due to a disability must mark the appropriate box on the application and/or contact the testing department.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

If Promotional Examinations Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment and military veterans that meet all the minimum qualifications. Under certain circumstances, other employees may be allowed to compete under provisions of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2, and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices, at the State Personnel Board office or www.jobs.ca.gov.

If High School Equivalence is Required: Equivalence to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.

College Education: The qualifications meeting the requirement "Equivalent to graduation from college" means satisfaction of the requirements for the bachelor's degree from an accredited, recognized institution of higher education. This means the applicant must show receipt of a bachelor's degree. Acceptable college course work must be from an accredited, recognized institution approved by the California Superintendent.

Career Credits: In open, non-promotional examinations, career credits are granted to: 1) State employees with permanent civil service status, 2) full-time employees of the state who are exempt from State civil service pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution, and who meet all qualification requirement specified by the Board and have 12 consecutive months of service in an exempt position, and 3) individuals who have served one full year in, or are graduates of, the California Conservation Corps (eligibility shall expire 24 months after graduation from the California Conservation Corps). Three points are added to the final test score of those candidates who meet the above criteria, and who are successful in the examination. Such examinations cannot be for managerial positions described in Government Code Section 3513. Competitors not currently employed in state civil service who have mandatory reinstatement rights may also be eligible for career credits, but they must explain their service status in the appropriate section of the application Form 100-678. (Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution is posted at the State Personnel Board, 801 Capitol Mall and Sacramento).

Portfolio Manager, CalSTRS

Supplemental Application Open Examination

The California State Teachers' Retirement System (CalSTRS) is a civil service agency of the State of California. As stated in the Constitution of the State of California, Section 1. (b) "In the civil service, permanent appointment and promotion shall be made under a general system based on merit ascertained by competitive examination." The merit system requires that competitive, job related examinations be utilized to determine the relative qualifications of applicants for employment and enables State agencies to hire the most qualified eligible candidates, as determined by these examinations.

CalSTRS is currently administering an open civil service examination for Portfolio Manager, CalSTRS. The examination will consist of a Supplemental Application evaluation weighted 100%. The Supplemental Application will provide you with an opportunity to demonstrate your qualifications for the Portfolio Manager, CalSTRS. Only those candidates who meet the minimum qualifications for the job classification will have their Supplemental Application responses scored. A completed Supplemental Application must be submitted along with a completed Standard State Application (STD. 678).

The Supplemental Application evaluation will be used in determining each candidate's final examination score. Successful candidates will be placed on CalSTRS employment eligibility list for the Portfolio Manager, CalSTRS. Candidates whose scores place them within the top three ranks on the employment eligibility list are considered reachable and may be considered for immediate employment.

A candidate's eligibility expires 12 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period. Candidates who have a change of address during the examination process or during the 12 month life of their eligibility should send a change of address notification to:
